

(KAMPUNI YA KUSAMBAZA TEKNOLOJIA)

Suppliers and dealers in: Farm Implements, Post harvest technologies, Rural transportation equipment, Low-cost housing, New and renewable energies, Water supply and sanitation, Training and consultancy services, Project management and Execution

P. O. Box 13954, Tel: 255 27 2544549/0741-511719, E-mail: kakute@tz2000.com
Arusha Tanzania

COMPANY PROFILE.

KAKUTE Limited (Kampuni ya Kusambaza Teknolojia) is a Tanzanian-based company which was established and registered in 1995 with a social justice agenda to reduce poverty through real business opportunities. The company head quarters is based in Arusha, Tanzania.

Mission Statement

The purpose of KAKUTE is technology transfer. The focus of its activities is the NGOs, Project, Local government and small-scale entrepreneurs.

- Thus KAKUTE attempts to transfer technology to small-scale entrepreneurs and farmers who seek to introduce new products or to employ new manufacturing techniques
- KAKUTE selects, adopt or develops an appropriate technology that is more advance and relevant at the required time and standard.

The Team.

KAKUTE Limited has three directors who are also shareholders, permanent workers, part time workers and short-term consultants in different professions. The management team consist of Managing Director, Production team, Training team, Accountant and Marketing team.

For the past ten years, KAKUTE has designed, developed and manufactured various technologies for marketing and sales to different beneficiaries in the Country and abroad this includes (Establishment of Jatropha value chain, Tree nursery promotion, biogas plants, water pumps, rural housing, ram presses and fuel-efficient stoves)

Market Summary

KAKUTE present itself to the client as source of help in the development of their business. We listen to the client problems and tries to device strategy to assist them to realize their own ambitions. To attract these we demonstrate new ideas for productive ventures.

Opportunities.

Problems and opportunities:

KAKUTE mode of operation and range of services relies on customers/client' requirement and are consistently evolving. No list of services could be complete and final. There will be always adoption innovation and imaginative approach to the task and generate new services.

Business Concept

The company has established a cottage herbal soap processing facility, in Arusha, Tanzania. The company receives its support from various partners, individual suppliers, and women and other groups associated with the J.P.T.L. KAKUTE collaborate with other associate like, JPTL, Pamoja Inc, and others with like mind in provision of technical and logistical support to other institution too.

Office.

TASO agricultural show ground
Plot No N6
Contact: Managing Director
Tel: 255-744-662646.